

An artistic illustration of several hands of different colors (brown, tan, white) reaching towards a central glowing orb. The orb is bright and has a lens-like effect, with light rays emanating from it. The background is a warm, golden-brown gradient.

Manners OF INTERACTING WITH OTHERS

Allah the Exalted says:
"Friends on that Day (the Day of Judgement) will be foes to one another except the Muttaqun (those Muslims who fear Allah and abstain from all kinds of sins and evils prohibited in Islam and perform all kinds of good deeds ordained by Him)"
[Qur'an: Al-Zukhruf: 67]

Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The best amongst you are the ones who are best in manners."

"Do not hate one another, do not be jealous of one another, do not turn your backs on one another (i.e. do not cut ties from one another and be Allah's slaves – brothers unto one another" and "it is not permissible for a Muslim to forsake his brother for more than three days."

It is prohibited to call each other by disapproving and insulting nick names.

"...nor insult one another by nick names. How bad it is to insult one's brother after having faith."
[Qur'an: Al-Hujurat: 11]
